

Selected articles on academic Jewish Genealogy (2006 - 2012)

Mokotoff, Gary & Sack, Sallyann Amdur, "The Next Step: Jewish Genealogy Goes Academic", Avotaynu, xx, 3 (Fall 2004), 3-4

Mokotoff, Gary, "The Role of Genealogy in the Jewish Community", Avotaynu, xxi, 3 (Fall 2005), 3-5

Wagner, H. Daniel, "Genealogy as an Academic Discipline", Avotaynu, xxii, 1 (Spring 2006), 3-12

Jones, Thomas W., "International Institute: A Breakthrough for Academic Genealogy?", Association of Professional Genealogy Quarterly, xxii, 1 (March 2007)

_____, "Postsecondary Study of Genealogy: Curriculum and Its Contents", Avotaynu, xxiii, 3 (Fall 2007), 17-23

Lamdan, Neville, "Jewish Genealogy: Moving Towards Recognition as a Sub-branch of Jewish Studies", Avotaynu, xxv, 2 (Summer 2009), 3-8

_____, _____, "Jewish genealogy – moving towards academic recognition", Shemot, xviii, 2 (2010), 41-44.

Lupovitch, Howard, "The Jews of Óbuda, Miskolc and Pest: A Grassroots Genealogical Approach", www.iihg.org, RESEARCH/Hungarian Protocols/final report (June 2011)

Hershkovitz, Arnon, "Leveraging Genealogy as an Academic Discipline", Avotaynu, xxvii, 3 (Fall 2011), 18-24

_____, _____, "A suggested taxonomy for genealogy as a multidisciplinary academic research field". Journal of Multidisciplinary Research, 4 (3) [2012], 18-23.

Updated April 2013