CALL FOR GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH PROPOSALS

The International Institute for Jewish Genealogy invites proposals for original research
in the field of Jewish Genealogy,
to be carried out in the academic year of 2014-15.

Successful applicants will be awarded grants of up to $10,000.

Proposals are requested by 31 May, 2014.

Proposals meeting strict standards of academic excellence will be judged by the extent to which they broaden the horizons of Jewish genealogical research and/or create innovative tools or technologies
to assist Jewish genealogists and family historians in their work.

Successful applicants will be announced on 1 September, 2014.

"Instructions to Applicants"
are to be found on the Institute's website:
www.iijg.org

- under "RESEARCH"/ "Research Grants".

Only applications in correct form will be considered.
